

STATE OF ARKANSAS
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS: Swimming and aquatic-related activities provide opportunities for recreation, learning, and exercising, as well as for building self-esteem, confidence, and a sense of self-worth, which all contribute to the quality of life in our communities and directly affect physical and mental health; and

WHEREAS: Sadly, drowning is a leading cause of injury-related death among children under the age of five years and, each year, near-drowning accidents result in life-long disabilities; and

WHEREAS: Drowning Prevention Month was established through a collaborative effort across the country to promote water safety, aquatic safety, and drowning prevention; and

WHEREAS: The Drowning Prevention Foundation continues to raise awareness about drowning prevention and reminds parents and caregivers that children are not drown-proof; and

WHEREAS: During the month of May, the State of Arkansas is joining with the Drowning Prevention Foundation to promote pool safety and drowning prevention in our communities; and

WHEREAS: With temperatures on the rise, more people are heading out to enjoy summer activities, many of which include being on the water and swimming. By becoming informed, Arkansas citizens can enjoy a fun-filled and safe summer;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ASA HUTCHINSON, Governor of the State of Arkansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws of the State of Arkansas, do hereby proclaim May 2015, as across the State, and I urge my fellow citizens to observe and promote safety rules and practices when participating in water-related recreational activities.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Arkansas to be affixed this 11th day of March, in the year of our Lord 2015.

ASA HUTCHINSON, GOVERNOR

Attest:

MARK MARTIN, SECRETARY OF STATE
