

STATE OF ARKANSAS
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS COME – GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle was designated as the United States of America's National Emblem on June 20th, 1782, by our country's Founding Fathers at the Second Continental Congress; and
- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle is unique to North America and represents American values and attributes such as freedom, courage, strength, spirit, justice, quality, and excellence; and
- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle is the central image used in the Great Seal of the United States and in the logos of many branches of the U.S. government, including the Presidency, Congress, Defense Department, Treasury Department, Justice Department, State Department, Department of Commerce, and U.S. Postal Service; and
- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle's image, meaning, and symbolism have played a significant role in the beliefs, traditions, religions, lifestyles, and heritage of Americans from all walks of life, including U.S. military service men/women, American Indians, Christians, and members of various civic, fraternal, patriotic, veterans, youth, conservation, educational, outdoors, nature, sportsman, wildlife, political, and sports organizations; and
- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle's image, meaning, and symbolism have played a significant role in American art, music, literature, architecture, commerce, education, culture; and on United States stamps, currency, and coinage; and
- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle was once endangered with possible extinction and is making a gradual and encouraging comeback to America's skies; and
- WHEREAS: The Bald Eagle was federally classified as an "endangered species" in the lower 48 states under the Endangered Species Act in 1973 and was upgraded to a less imperiled "threatened" status under that Act in 1995; and
- WHEREAS: The Department of Interior and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service delisted the Bald Eagle from Endangered Species Act protection in 2007, but it will continue to be protected under the Bald and Golden Eagle Protection Act and the Migratory Bird Treaty Act; and
- WHEREAS: The recovery of the United States' Bald Eagle population was largely accomplished due to the vigilant efforts of numerous caring agencies, corporations, organizations, and citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ASA HUTCHINSON, Governor of the State of Arkansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws of the State of Arkansas, do hereby proclaim June 20th, 2022, as

across the State, and I encourage all citizens to support the majestic Bald Eagle's continuing recovery and the protections of its precious natural habitat and to commemorate the living and symbolic presence of our National Bird through the annual observance of American Eagle Day.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Arkansas to be affixed this 30th day of March, in the year of our Lord 2022.

Asa Hutchinson, Governor

John Thurston, Secretary of State
